Name: Mrs. Thiesia Hubers

Position: Part-time Junior High teacher (Art & English)

Education/Schools Attended: Graduated from Dorcht College in 1983 (Bachelors Secondary Ed, English major), Purdue in 2015 (Masters Special Education)

After I taught for two years in Liberia and raised children for 20 years in Indiana, I started teaching part-time 7-12 when my oldest headed for college and enrolled in Purdue when my youngest headed for college. Now, with a Bachelor's in English and a Master's in Special Education, I teach Art. Go figure.

Fun Facts and Favorite Bible Verse:

For fun, I dabble in keyboarding, gardening, sewing, cooking for crowds, and facilitating opportunities for Junior High kids to grow in relationship with God, others, and themselves. I recited Micah 6:8 as a Calvinette back in the 70's and it is still my life-verse. Striving to Do Justice in a fallen world, serving others by Loving Kindness, and seeking to Walk Humbly with my God gives my life purpose. And if a day threatens to be blaah, the pizzazz of six children and fourteen grandchildren re-inspire that joie de vivre.
